

Costa Navarino welcomes its guests in 2016 with enhanced experiences

Increased accessibility to Costa Navarino with 9 direct weekly flights from the UK

18 February 2016 - Costa Navarino welcomes its guests on February 21st.

The season begins with an extensive variety of activities, such as outdoor, tailor-made sports', vast number of family and kids' offerings, new awarded chefs and authentic Messinian experiences.

Beginning this year, the destination is set to entice more UK travelers with 9 direct weekly flights to Kalamata Airport. Two new flights will arrive weekly, every Thursday and Saturday from London - Heathrow with British Airways, from April 30th till October.

In addition to the two BA flights, 4 flights will continue to operate in 2016 by Easy Jet from London Gatwick, starting on March 29th. Early May, Thomas Cook will also operate 3 flights from London Gatwick, Birmingham and Manchester.

Since last year, there is a 21% increase of UK visitors, turning Messinia to one of the most preferred destinations in the Mediterranean.

With year round mild temperatures, an idyllic setting that combines monumental history with unspoilt natural seaside landscape beauty, clear blue skies and transparent waters, Costa Navarino is now more accessible and 'ideal for year-round vacation!'
