COSTA NAVARINO

JOIN US TO DISCOVER THE FLAVOURS OF SOUTHERN GREECE AT SOHO'S SLICKEST WINE BAR

BOOK NOW: CNWINETASTING2018.EVENTBRITE.CO.UK

Tickets are £35 and include a guided tasting of three wines, Greek-inspired canapés and a goodie bag

The Greeks know a thing or two about wine. There is evidence of grapes being crushed and the juice fermented in Ancient Greece from around 4,500BC, making it one of the oldest wine-producing regions in the world. With pretty rows of organic vines on the sunny Peloponnese coast overlooking the Ionian Sea, The Navarino Vineyards haven't been around for as long but their bottles are no less notable. This month in London's buzzing West End, a top sommelier from 68 and Boston bar will lead guests on a guided tasting of award-winning wines from Costa Navarino, Greece's smartest sustainable destination. Served alongside delicious Greek-inspired canapés, the 1827 series includes a buttery white, combining the peach flavours of a traditional Chardonnay with the delicately aromatic local Roditis grape. The 1827 Rosé Syrah is a brilliant, bold specimen of fresh berry fruits, while the rich ruby-red Kotyle Cabernet Sauvignon is a spicy hit of vanilla and jam that won a gold medal at the CIDC 2017, the biggest Cabernet-wine competition in the world. Viniculture is just part of the attraction of Costa Navarino. It also has two hotels along its beautiful coastline - chic The Romanos, a Luxury Collection Resort, and family-friendly The Westin Resort, Costa Navarino - as well as the new private villas Navarino Residences. There is also a brilliant spa, two golf courses and great restaurants and bars. For more information and to book a holiday at Costa Navarino, visit costanavarino.com
