

Costa Navarino launches an exclusive Villa Rental Collection

Messinia, 21 March 2024 - Costa Navarino, the sustainably driven destination in the Mediterranean, expands its offering with the introduction of a new Villa Rental Collection. Those seeking to immerse into the home-owner experience of Costa Navarino Residences, can select from a range of luxury villas now available to rent, whilst enjoying all the facilities and services the destination has to offer.

Located either a few meters from the beach, or nestled among verdant olive groves, the villas offer breath-taking, unobstructed sea and golf views, and can accommodate up to 10 guests. The properties are designed by renowned Greek architects, following the sustainable development guidelines of Costa Navarino, and based on bioclimatic architecture principles.

The villas offer convenient, single, or two-story spacious living, making them the ideal option for multi-generational holidays, milestone celebrations and longer stays with family and friends. They are fully managed, offering a hassle-free experience. Guests can enjoy a 1km-long sandy beach overlooking the Ionian Sea, and a multitude of sports activities including four signature golf courses and 17 state-of-the-art courts for tennis, padel and pickleball. While benefitting from the privacy of their villa, guests can also indulge in an extensive culinary offering of more than 40 dining options and a wide range of recreational activities and authentic experiences, such as astronomy nights, philosophy walks, Messinian picnics and much more.

The villas are available across two neighborhoods within Navarino Dunes, the destination's first resort area. The Rolling Greens neighborhood features golf-front and unobstructed sea view properties, located amidst lush nature. In addition, the Olive Grove is set among centuries-old olive trees, affording panoramic sea views.
